

Group Risk - what makes us different

Irish Life - Product Information

Choosing Irish Life as your risk provider brings you peace of mind in uncertain times. We have a deserved reputation for bringing quality service and a customer-focused attitude to our group life and income protection business.

Group Risk is not something we have just started to take an interest in since the last few years. We've been at this business in a serious way since the 1970s. Our largest group scheme (and the largest in the country covering over 14,000 members) has been on our books continuously since 1976.

We have delivered to our clients through the good times and the bad.

Here are what some of those clients (and consultants) have had to say about us.

Irish Life has given sympathetic consideration to such claims."
