FUND DESCRIPTION

The Indexed Commodities Fund aims to track the performance of the overall commodities markets (oil, gas and so on). It currently tracks the Goldman Sachs Light Energy Index. In the past, commodities have given similar levels of returns to shares over the long-term. However, they tend to behave differently to all other assets. For this reason commodities are often good to invest in if you have already invested in shares and bonds. This may help reduce the overall risk over the long term. This fund does not invest in physical commodities but invests in financial instruments that are linked to the price of these. The Indexed Commodities Fund invests in financial instruments linked to the price of commodities. The counterparty to these financial instruments is currently Goldman Sachs International but this could change in the future. Counterparty risk is the risk that Goldman Sachs International cannot pay what they owe. This could mean that you receive less than the amount invested in the fund.

Warning: If you invest in this product you may lose some or all of the money you invest.
